VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff WILLIAM MCFARLANE is a twenty-three year old African American man residing in Brooklyn, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants ROBERT REED, JAMES MORMILE, MICHAEL FRAGEDIS, BERTHA PIAZZA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On August 20, 2009, at approximately 1:00 p.m., plaintiff WILLIAM MCFARLANE was lawfully present in front of his grandparents' home located at 434 Rockaway Parkway, Brooklyn, New York, when some of the defendant NYPD officers – believed to be defendants Reed and Piazza - approached plaintiff and requested his identification. Plaintiff handed the defendants his identification.

13. Shortly thereafter, plaintiff asked the defendant officers why he was being questioned. The defendants responded that plaintiff “fit the description.” The defendant officers then entered the private property of 434 Rockaway Parkway through a gate, gestured to a bicycle and asked plaintiff if the bicycle belonged to plaintiff. Plaintiff responded, in sum and substance, it's not my bicycle, it's my cousin's. The defendant officer stated, in sum and substance, if it's no one's bicycle I'll take it. The defendants took said bicycle and walked it to a police vehicle.

14. Plaintiff approached the front of the police vehicle while the defendants were in the rear of said vehicle and stated in sum and substance, can I have your name and badge number. Defendant Reed walked up to plaintiff and stated in sum and substance, you see my fucking badge number, now get the fuck out of my face. In response plaintiff stated in sum and substance, you're in my fucking face and turned away from defendant Reed.

15. Defendant Reed immediately pushed plaintiff into a vehicle, and the defendants unlawfully placed arrested and handcuffed plaintiff. This occurred, on information and belief, in the presence of defendants Piazza, Fragedis and Mormile, who participated in and otherwise took no action to stop this misconduct, despite their affirmative duty to do so.

16. The defendants transported plaintiff to an NYPD precinct and imprisoned plaintiff until his arraignment in Kings County Criminal Court on false charges filed against claimant on Docket No. 2009KN067087 based on the false statements of the defendants. The defendants initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to cover up the above mentioned abuse of authority.

17. At plaintiff's arraignment, the criminal docket was adjourned in contemplation of dismissal and subsequently dismissed and sealed in Kings County Criminal Court.

18. All of the above occurred while the defendant NYPD officers directly participated and/or otherwise stood by yet failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

19. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

20. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK's Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers are insufficiently trained on when to stop, detain, arrest and search individuals.

21. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

22. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY of NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

23. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff WILLIAM MCFARLANE sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
